News of Manchester

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street. It would be difficult to discover a more peaceful, quiet and religious city than Manchester was yesterday. Most of those who attended services at the churches of the various denominations were rewarded by hearing excellent sermons. Not the least eloquent and instructive was one preached last night in the courthouse by a newly ordained minister, Eider J. E. Herndon, of the Primitive Baptist Church. Mr. Herndon is filling temporarily the place of Elder A. J. Moore, who is taking his summer vacation. He is, besides an ordained minister, a motorman on the Highland Park line of the Virginia Rallway and Power Company.

Four citizens of this town, however, who did not go to church yesterday moraling, but who wish they had, are Mason Anderson, Beverly White, Onic Armistead and William Mosby.
